GO Topeka Privacy Policy

While GO Topeka automatically collects information about your device and internet request, we do not collect any personal information about you when you visit our site unless you choose to provide the information. Your personal information will not be sold, rented, loaned or shared with any outside person or organization. Local businesses may petition us to contact site users who have previously requested information about their particular organization. The GO Topeka governing board will only release the information if its potential use is in keeping with GOTopeka.com's overall mission. This policy applies only to the GOTopeka.com website. Other websites that are linked to GOTopeka.com have different and separate privacy policies.

Privacy

Protecting the privacy of our website visitors is very important to GOTopeka.com. Because we gather certain types of information about our users, we want to make sure you are informed of the ways in which we may and may not use the information you transmit to us when you visit GOTopeka.com.

GO Topeka does not collect or track personal information from GO Topeka website visitors, except where specifically indicated on the relevant web pages. Generic information from server logs may be used to track and analyze the number of hits to the site and to find out what types of browser software are used by visitors. This information will be used only in aggregate form and used solely for improving website design. These data do not contain any personally identifiable information and will be used for purposes of analyzing website traffic and making improvements for visitors to GOTopeka.com.

The information you send us

We will not collect personally identifiable information from you, other than what you supply to us on a voluntary basis. If you choose to send us an email or complete a web-based form, that information is stored in an employee's email client or in an online database. We use that information to respond to your request or to provide interaction on our website. Supplying such information is entirely voluntary. GOTopeka.com will not knowingly accept personally identifiable information from visitors under the age of 18 who have not obtained permission from their parents or guardians.

Use of Cookies

To help make our sites more responsive to the needs of our visitors, we invoke a standard feature found in browser software, called a "cookie," to assign each visitor a unique, random number, an anonymous user ID that resides on your device. The cookie does not identify the visitor, just the device that a visitor uses to access the site. Unless you voluntarily identify yourself (through registration, for example), GO Topeka will not know who you are, even if we assign a cookie to your device. A cookie cannot read data stored on your device.

GO Topeka uses cookies to help us tailor our website to your needs and to deliver a better, more personalized service. GO Topeka may also use cookies to track the pages on our site visited by our users. We can build a better site if we know which pages our users are visiting and how often.

You can refuse cookies by turning them off in your browser. You do not need to have cookies enabled to use GOTopeka.com. However, some features of our site will not work properly if you refuse cookies.

Acceptance of the GOTopeka.com privacy policy

By using this website, you signify your agreement to the terms and conditions of this GOTopeka.com Online Privacy Policy. If you do not agree to these terms and conditions, please do not use this site. We reserve the right, at our sole discretion, to change, modify, add, or remove portions of this policy at any time. Please check this page periodically for any changes. Your continued use of GOTopeka.com following the posting of any changes to these terms shall mean that you have accepted those changes.

Disclaimer

The information contained on this website was compiled using information provided by various businesses and sources listed.
