

GOTOPEKA » QUALITY OF LIFE »
CLIMATE

Topekans enjoy four distinct and very beautiful seasons. Spring often comes as early as March when the daffodils bloom. Summers pass with just a few days over 100 degrees. Nearly 70 percent of the annual precipitation falls between April and September. Autumn is a season of warm days, cool nights, and colorful foliage. Winter's first storm usually strikes before the end of December.

SPRING

Gage Park Rock Garden

Average Daily Temperature in April: 55 Degrees (2014)

2014 rainfall: 30.71 inches

SUMMER

Ensley Botanical Gardens at Lake Shawnee

Average Daily Temperature in July: 77 Degrees (2014)

FALL

Ward Meade Park

Average Daily Temperature in October: 59 Degrees (2014)

WINTER

Gazebo at Memorial Park Cemetery

2013 -2014 winter snowfall: 23.2 inches

Average Daily Temperature in January: 28 Degrees (2014)